THE Fort Mill Community Playhouse 2017 SEASON

Our 2017 Season

Canine Comedy
 Written by A.R. Gurney
 Directed by Polly Adkins

March 3-5, 10-12, 17-19

A modern romantic comedy about a marriage and a dog. Sylvia, a street-smart mixture of Lab and Poodle, becomes a major bone of contention between husband and wife. The marriage is put in serious jeopardy and, after a series of hilarious and touching complications, Greg and Kate have to honestly decide whether their marital future is worth the trouble of having a dog in an NYC high-rise.

Spooky Comedy
 Written by Flip Kobler
 & Cindy Marcus
 Directed by Erica Owens

September 8-10, 15-17, 22-24

Bethany is bright, strong, independent, beautiful and has zero self esteem. She has brought her fiancée, Floyd, and his mother, Verna, up to her cabin in the woods, the site of the hunting accident that killed Chance, her first husband. Much to her consternation, he or rather, his ghost is still there.

Dangerous Comedy
 Written by Nick Hall
 Directed by Elaine Roberts

June 9-11, 16-17, 22-25

Ex-spouses Paul and Polly Butler write murder mysteries together. They act out the crimes in Paul's apartment: poisoned chocolates and lethal martinis, alibis and fingerprints, bodies in a trunk and bodies all tied up, daggers, guns and even an axe all contribute to the hilarity. Nobody gets hurt, but their egos take some hits as they find that their marriage was mixed up with their work. There are many fast paced comic twists as they attempt to outdo and surprise each other and they learn that marriage, like murder, is in the details.

Musical Comedy
 Written by Tom Jones
 Music by Harvey Schmidt
 Directed by Billy Ensley

November 3-5, 10-12, 17-19

This intimate musical follows one couple through fifty years of love, quarrels and marriage. The show begins with Michael and Agnes on their wedding day. Their vows behind them, they look forward to spending the rest of their lives together. We watch as they go through their wedding night jitters, raise a family and negotiate mid-life crises.
